Cookie Declaration

This website uses cookies. Cookies are small text files that can be used by websites to make a user’s experience more efficient. When a website is accessed, a cookie that is placed on a device will send information to the party that placed the cookie. Cookies are common and used on most websites. From these cookies, we can, for example, determine whether you have already visited the site or which settings you prefer. Cookies may also contain personal data, i.e. information relating to an identified or identifiable natural person.

We may use cookies to personalize content and ads, to provide social media features and to analyze our traffic. In limited cases we also use cookies provided by trusted third parties, like Google Analytics, which is one of the most widespread and trusted analytics solution on the web. Google Analytics helps us to understand how you use the site and ways that we can improve your experience. These cookies may track things such as how long you spend on the site and the pages that you visit. For more information on Google Analytics cookies, see the official Google Analytics page.

You consent to our cookies if you continue to use our website. Most web browsers allow at least some control of most cookies through browser settings. You may refuse the use of cookies by selecting the appropriate settings on your browser to decline cookies. You may also delete existing cookies through your browser. Your consent applies to the following domains: www.blinkdc.com. For further information on our use of cookies and similar technologies, please contact us: contact@blinkdc.com
